BYRNES URGES BIG 4 PACT TO CURB GERMANY

25-Year Plan To Keep Peace Proposed; Ministers Study Trieste Report.

By The Associated Press

PARIS, April 30—The foreign ministers conference decided to devote its entire session today to a discussion of Trieste and the Italian-Yugoslav frontier questions after receiving from U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes a proposal for a four-power mutual assistance pact to keep the peace in Germany for at least a quarter of a century.

The ministers of Britain, Russia, France and the United States received copies of a boundary commission report on Venezie Giulia, one of the most difficult problems of the conference.

No details of the report were made public, but it was believed to contain both majority and minority opinions. Previous reports of a virtual accord on the frontier issue apparently were not borne out.

25-Year Pledge

Byrnes' proposals would pledge American military might to keep the peace in Germany for at least 25 years as part of a long-term United States foreign policy.

The hitherto secret United States proposal, which would combine the military forces of the United States, Russia, Britain and France to assure a permanent German disarmament, was made public by Byrnes at a press conference last night.

The secretary of state also disclosed he had drafted a similar pact to keep United States and other Allied forces on the alert against a revival of militarism in Japan, but declined to announce details of this proposal.

Byrnes said Premier Stalin had supported the idea for the four-power treaty on Germany last Christmas when the two discussed the matter in Moscow. Vyacheslav Molotov, Russian foreign minister, yesterday opposed placing the matter on the conference agenda.

How Powers Stand

France and Britain have accepted the proposal in principle, Byrnes said, and Russia has expressed willingness to discuss it, although without setting a definite time.

Whether the treaty draft will be placed on the agenda remained unsettled.

The proposed pact apparently was put forward with the sanction of Sen. Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, and Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich), ranking minority party member of the committee, who are acting as Byrnes' assistants at the conference.

It was an answer to fears, which Byrnes said had been expressed by Stalin and other leaders, that the United States might withdraw from European affairs as it did after the first World war.

The proposal requires German acceptance as a condition for the withdrawal of Allied occupation

Government Closets Lewis with Operators Insisting on New Contract.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30—The government put John L. Lewis in a room with the soft coal operators today and insisted they negotiate a new contract to end the critical 30-day-old mine shutdown.

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach stationed two seasoned "umpires" in the room with the committees of miners and operators to make certain the discussions keep going if at all possible. Then he stepped out of the picture and expressed the conviction the groundwork had been laid for eventual settlement.

The two government mediators are Edward F. McGrady, one-time assistant secretary of labor and now a vice president of the Radio Corp. of America, and Paul W. Fuller, a former labor organizer, Methodist circuit rider and coal miner.

Schwellenbach and his aides were noncommital about whether any specific propositions had been given to the operators or to Lewis. McGrady said it was "too early to tell" whether any progress had been made at the initial session yesterday.

Lewis was pleasant but uncommunicative. The operators conceded that for the present at least, it was a government "show."

Schwellenbach said the meetings had been resumed at the government's request—not the operators' or Lewis' and he was trying to keep the negotiators going despite the unswerving stands of the disputing parties.

Marion County Vet and English Bride Make Home Here

Kenneth Clary of near Marion and his English bride, the former Miss Eileen Sullivan of Wembley, England, arrived home yesterday following their wedding last Thursday and a wedding trip through the east. Mr. Clary met his bride at LaGuardia Field, New York, upon her arrival by plane last Wednesday and their marriage took place at Greenwich, Conn., with Rev. Waverly, pastor of a Methodist church reading the ceremony in his home. Enroute to Marion the couple motored to Washington, W. C., and through the south, spending some time with Mr. Clary's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cline Clary and daughter, Linda at Huntington, W. Va. They will make their home with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie O. Clary of the Columbus-Sandusky pike for the present.

Mr. Clary and his bride met in November 1944 at a Red Cross dance in London, while the former, a private first class in the Eighth Army Air Corps was sta-

5,000 Slated To See Lausche, Chandler Stage First Pitch

By JIM DARBY

Baseball officially gets under way in Marion tonight when the battery of Gov. Frank J. Lausche and Baseball Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler faces the first Lima Terrier batter at 6 p. m. Five thousand persons are expected to crowd Lincoln Park for the event.

Gates will be opened at 5:30 p. m. and "first come, first served" is the policy. Only box seats are reserved. Extra bleachers have been provided to handle the crowd which is the first of an expected record 100,000 paid admissions before the end of the season Sept. 8.

The weather man is cooperating with a prediction that tonight's weather will be "partly cloudy and mild." Other Ohio State league cities concede that Marion's opener will draw the biggest crowd. Lima reports that a large delegation from that city will be on hand.

Three other openers are scheduled for tonight—Zanesville at Newark, Richmond at Middletown and Springfield at Dayton.

Seyfried To Hurl

Manager Wally Schang will call on veteran William Seyfried to hurl tonight's game for the Cardinals, he said today. Seyfried won three, lost 11 for an earned run average of 4.41 last season with Marion.

Opposing him on the mound for Lima will be a rookie, Merlin Williams. Both are righthanded. Williams has had sandlot and semi-pro experience and has looked very good in practice sessions, Lima reports.

Jim Lilly, ordinarily a catcher, will handle the "hot corner" tonight and probably until the team goes on the road against Lima when Sebastian Schneider, regular third baseman, will become eligible.

Blond Vernon Rapp, husky sixfooter from St. Louis, will catch Seyfried tonight.

At first base will be either William MacFarland or Angelo Veneri. Stephen Lazar, who punched out several extra base knocks in Sunday's intra-squad game, will be on second with Raymond Haley at shortstop.

PAUL CASTNER DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME

Was Well-Known in Athletic Circles; Rites Thursday.

William Paul Castner, 62, well-known in the sports activities here for many years, died suddenly at his home at 701 South Prospect street this morning. A physician pronounced cause of death a heart attack, and set the time of his death at approximately 8 a. m. U. S. PLANS FOR CRACK DOWN ON BLACK MARKET

Justice Department Promises Active Campaign Against Food Profiteers.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30—The government turned more heat on black market today with the aim of improving the domestic food situation and halting the diversion of famine relief supplies for overseas.

The justice department announced a "vigorous crackdown" on income tax evaders suspects of reaping black market profits.

"We're going after these fellows," Attorney General Tom Clark announced.

OPA disclosed a stepped-up enforcement campaign, aimed primarily at the black market in meat, which Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said is thwarting the nation's efforts to meet relief export goals in lard and meat.

850 Agents at Work

Administrator Paul Porter said OPA soon will have 850 enforcement agents working against the meat black markets, as compared with about 650 at present. Porter was hopeful of "a marked change" in the situation within the next two months.

The broad food picture was marked by these developments:

1. The agriculture department reported it will take five years to restore European food production to pre-war levels.

2. Another agriculture report placed the nation's April corn supply stocks 19 per cent under last year's figures.

3. Secretary Anderson warned that food shortages here may continue into 1948 and asserted in a speech yesterday that further food sacrifices will be sought from the people. He did not go into details on the latter point.

4. Latest government statistics disclosed that the general level of farm product prices soared this month to their highest mark since July, 1920. The lift came from major advances in prices for meat animals, fruits and cotton.

Truman Makes Appeal

President Truman canvassed the food situation again yesterday in a conference with four high-ranking aides. A brief while earlier he appealed to a group of 300 Washington clergymen for their help in promoting food conservation.

In the subsequent White House conference, Mr. Truman talked with Secretary Anderson; Dean Acheson, acting secretary of state; Secretary of War Patterson, and John L. Sullivan, assistant secretary of the Navy.

Acheson and Anderson have differed recently over what steps the government should take to step up relief shipments, with Acheson indorsing such drastic measures as seizure of wheat. Anderson favors a less sweeping policy marked by voluntary cooperation.

Whether these differences were threshed out at the conference was not disclosed. Anderson said the meeting was part of an effort to adjust relief shipment holdings "to be a little more helpful to Army schedules." Others who attended would not comment.

Ammunition Blasts Sink Naval Ships

Explosions Hit Big Depot in New Jersey; Casualties in Doubt.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 30—The Third naval district headquarters announced that two explosions occurred aboard the U. S. S. Solar, Destroyer Escort 221, at the Leonardo ammunition depot, Pier 1, Earle, N. J., today.

The ship later sank at her pier.

The first was a moderate explosion and most of the personnel had an opportunity to get clear, the Navy said, but several wounded were taken to Army hospitals nearby.

The second explosion was described by the Navy as of major violence and a fighter across the dock was demolished.

Other vessels were hauled out into the stream.

The Solar was launched May 29, 1943, with five other destroyer escorts at the Philadelphia Navy yard.

At Earle the Navy expressed fear that "many are dead or wounded."

The Navy said it had but few details on the blast, which was followed by fire on the pier.

"It is very bad—just how bad we don't know yet—and we have no reports on the casualties," the naval spokesman said.

The blast occurred at 11:15 a. m. and could be heard for miles

C. OF C. HEAD RAPS QUICK END TO OPA

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 30—Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, contended today that if federal price control were wiped out in the immediate future "business would be back in the national doghouse within one week—and I mean the last stall in the doghouse, too."

He made this statement to a reporter shortly before he opened the 34th annual meeting of the U. S. chamber. Approximately 2,000 business men, drawn from every state, attended.

Johnston's position fell squarely athwart that of the National Association of Manufacturers, which has advocated the complete elimination of OPA after its present powers expired on June 30. It also indicated a divided opinion within the directorate of the Soviet Fighters "Buzz" Plane of Gen. Clark

By The Associated Press

VIENNA, April 30—Two Russian fighters buzzed the personal plane of Gen. Mark W. Clark today as it was being flown from Vienna to Linz by Brig. Gen. Ralph A. Snavely, commander of the U. S. T. A., air division.

This was the third incident involving Soviet fighters and American planes in 10 days.

Clark was not aboard his plane, a B-17 Flying Fortress. He made his third protest against the Russian activities when he learned of today's attack.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT SET FOR TOMORROW

Leader of May Day Scheme Is Still at Large; Tokyo Gives Apologies Quickly.

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 30 — General MacArthur was marked for assassination May Day—tomorrow—with hand grenades and pistols "some time during Communistic demonstrations", near his headquarters, his office announced today.

American authorities learned of the assassination plot through one of the participants whom Hideo Tokayama, the accused but unapprehended leader, attempted to poison, said Brig. Gen. Frayne Baker, MacArthur's public relations officer.

The Japanese government officially presented its apologies at MacArthur's office as reports of the plot—spreading like wildfire through Tokyo—stirred Japanese fears of harsher occupation policies.

Kyuchi Tokuda, general secretary of the Communist party, quickly said the Communists weren't involved and added, "We have absolutely no reason to do away with General MacArthur."

Known To Have Arms

Tokayama, former kempeitai (thought police) officer who later became a kamikaze (suicide) pilot, was known to possess grenades and pistols, Baker said. He was engaged for some time in preliminary arrangements to "enlist assistance" in a plot to kill MacArthur, a headquarters statement added, and had accumulated 140,000 yen ($9,333) for the purpose.

"At one time in his negotiations he attempted to kill, by putting poison in his coffee, one of the plotters because he felt this man would fail," the announcement said. "Fortunately, the poison was not immediately fatal. He was taken by the Japanese police to an American hospital, where through experienced assistance he was revived and detailed parts of the plot."

The informant, not identified by headquarters, will be kept in custody as one of the original plotters, Baker said. Japanese police released a photograph of Tokayama to the Japanese press in an effort to speed his arrest.

The headquarters announcement said:

"A plot has been uncovered to assassinate the supreme commander of the Allied powers as an incident to the Communist parade and mass meeting scheduled for May 1. The leader of the plot is Hideo Tokayama who has not yet been apprehended. Other known plotters still are at large, but are being rounded up."

Col. Harry I. T. Creswell, MacArthur's chief of civil intelligence, said his section "has no information as to Tokayama's politics. In fact, no political party was mentioned in connection" with the case.

Means Not Known

Creswell said an informant told headquarters of the plot five days ago. The informant related that five or six persons were involved but he did not know by what means they proposed to kill the Allied commander.

Creswell said he expected stories in the Japanese press about the plot would aid in the apprehension of Tokayama and the others.

Identification of Tokayama was made by Col. Larry Bunker, MacArthur's assistant military secre-

Lecture-Recital Club Has Spring Social at Hotel

THE annual spring event of the Lecture-Recital club, and the final activity of the club season, was held at Hotel Harding Monday night, with a special program of music presented for members and guests.

Dessert was served from a table centered with an arrangement of spring flowers in crystal flanked by tall tapers in crystal candleholders. Mrs. A. G. Biren, Lecture-Recital club president, and Mrs. Clara Campbell, president of the Lecture-Recital chorus, presided at the table. Mrs. Glen Perry, social chairman, was in charge.

Preceding the musical portion of the program, Mrs. Biren presided for a brief business session and gave a report on the Ohio Federation of Music clubs convention which she attended recently in Cincinnati.

Mrs. H. K. Mouser, state chairman of war service and music in hospitals, gave an outline of progress in that work, and of anticipated accomplishments in the field of aiding hospitalized veterans with the use of music.

For the musical program Mrs. H. T. Williams, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Campbell, who presented the chorus group. Two groups of spring numbers were sung by the chorus concluding with 'Spring Symphony" by Golson. The members were attired in pastel shade spring formals. After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents for about 100 guests. Decorations were carried out in peach and blue. Serving at the reception were Misses Betty and Barbara Vandenhoff, Virginia Flinchbaugh and Geraldine Flinchbaugh, Lorene Duke and Mrs. Tommy Stringfeller.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip the bride wore a tan suit with beige and alligator accessories. She carried a brown and blue top coat and wore her weddingg orchid.

CARDS GET ADVICE FROM TRAUTMAN AT OPENING BANQUE

"Give Baseball Your Best," Tiger Boss Tells Audience at "Meet the Team" Dinner

"There is plenty of room at the top in baseball," George M. Trautman, vice president and general manager of the Detroit Tigers told the 1946 Marion Cardinals at the first annual baseball banquet last night. "But the long road upward is only traveled by giving the game the best you have."

The Marion Cardinals, presented to the 400 persons who filled the Masonic Temple, were the guests of honor at the banquet sponsored by the inter-club council. Eighteen players were introduced by Manager Wally Schang. The Cardinals open their Ohio State league season tonight at 8 with Lima invading Lincoln park. (Details on Page One).

Gives The Loudown

Trautman sketched anecdotes from his long career in sports and outlined to the players, many of them beginning their first year in the game, the glamor and heartbreak, glory and tragedy of baseball. Trautman, a native of Bucyrus, has long been identified with Ohio sports, particularly around Columbus.

Players presented to Marion fans were Joe Roseberry, Melvin Wiebel, Charles Frey, Stephen Lazar, Jim Lilly, Bill Seyfried, Sebastian Schneider, Leo Pernni, Angelo Veneri, Don Dix, Raymond Haley, Vernon Rapp, Jos Pusateri, Fred Fass, Douglas Nicholson, Bill MacFarland, David Molloy and Jim Myers.

Also introduced were Mrs. Roseberry, Mrs. Dix and Mrs. Myers.

The welcoming address was given by Mayor Harry L. Dowler and responded to by Judge W. Dexter Hazen, president of the Marion Cardinals. Wilson B. Tway served as master of ceremonies and Rev. Howard L. Olewiler and Rev. E. H. Klutey gave the invocation and benediction respectively.

Emmett "Turk" Reilley, former Marion baseball player in the old Ohio State league, spoke briefly. He came from Jackson, Fla., to attend the banquet.

Edward J. Hummel, Ohio secretary of state, also attended and wished Marion success.

Telegrams of regret at inability to attend were read from "Bob" Quinn, former Marion player and former president of the Boston Braves, Judge W. G. Bramham, president of the National Association of Minor leagues, Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, Eddie Gilliland, president of the Toledo Mud Hens, Al Banister, president of the Columbus Red Birds, Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals and Frank M. Colley, president of the Ohio State league.

Quinn Remembers Marion Days Well

Bob Quinn has distinct memories of his early playing days in Marion, his telegram reveals. The wire brought out a few facts not generally known here. The telegram follows in part:

"I not only played but managed the team, was first hitter and helped dig up the cash to pay the bills. That was 1896. Seeger had not been born. In 1908 and 1909 I was president of the Ohio State league and our associates in Marion were the late President Warren G. Harding, George Christian, Eddie Staiger, Trace Allen, J. Wollenweber and several real fans who put cash. We had a real league.

"Sorry I will miss an opportunity to be with two other finished baseball players for the evening at least, Governor Lausche, late of the New England league and Governor, Senator, Commissioner Chandler, late of the Kitty league have both brought team spirit and cooperation into the political game exemplifying what baseball had taught them and its real reason for being our national game. Good luck, good crowds, fine season in every way. Bob Quinn."

Three Other OSL Openers Tonight

In addition to the game between the Marion Cardinals and the Lima Terriers at Lincoln Park, three other Ohio State league openers are scheduled for tonight.

The Zanesville Dodgers are playing at Newark. Neither Zanesville's Clay Bryant or Newark's Bob Bokan were at all certain of their starting lineup yesterday.

The Springfield Giants are playing the Dayton Indians in the latter's park. Indian Manager Frank Parenti is pretty well set in his opening selections with two identical twins, Carroll and Farroll Burton, in the lineup. Parenti says they are good ball players and not just carried for the novelty.

Springfield's manager Don Ramsey, who just arrived at Springfield, is certain of just one position—Ramsey as catcher.

Newcomer Richmond Roses are opening at the home field of the Middletown Reds. Manager Lefty Settlemire of the Roses was still uncertain of his lineup and has been promised more talent from the parent Boston Braves. Middletown's Mike Blazo is building last year's championship team back up from scratch. Most of last players from scratch. Most of last year's players deserted.

Dodgers, Red Sox To Meet 1945 Champions First Time

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

The major league's current pace makers—Brooklyn's precocious kids and Boston's slugging Red Sox—go on trial today when they engage the defending 1945 champions for the first time.

For the Dodgers' youthful crew, the opening intersectional series takes them to Chicago and then around the horn to St. Louis. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati will be an acid test.

Although the Brooks swept through the east on an eight-game winning spree until they collapsed at New York Sunday, they have been feasting on inept pitching offered by the Phillies and Giants.

Rookies Dick Whitman, Carl Furillo and Ferrell Anderson have been doing a good job but they have been breaking into the big show under most favorable conditions. Now they encounter some real "pros." Hank Borowy is slated to oppose Ed (No-Hit) Head today and they'll be lookingg at Max Lanier, Joe Beggs, Rip Sewell, Ed Heusser and Bucky Walters before they come home.

To date, the hitting of Billy Herman (.389) who is out with a leg injury, and Pete Reiser (.385) has provided the punch to back up some fine hurling by Vic Lombardi, Hank Behrman and Head.

In the American league, the Red Sox must open up against the Detroit's ace, Hal Newhouser, winner of his first three starts.

Joe Cronin has been getting fine pitching from Mickey Harris and Joe Dobson with Tex Hughson and Dave Ferris ready to hit their true stride but the slugging has been the thing in Boston.

Shortstop Johnny Pesky, who couldn't hit in spring training, burning up the league with a .391 average, big Ted Williams boasts a .367 mark and catcher Hal Wagner is close behind at .364. Two other regulars, center fielder Dommie Di Maggio and first sacker Rudy York are well over the .300 level.

Just as in the case of Brooklyn, the Red Sox have yet to see the league's best pitching. They face Newhouser today and probably Dizzy Trout and Al Benton later before Cleveland comes in with Bobby Feller, Steve Gromek, Allie Reynolds and Red Embree. St. Louis and Boston.

Rough Wrestling Bout Set for Local Fans

Thursday night's wrestling card bills what Promoter Les Fishbaugh says will be the roughest bout ever staged in Marion. In the main two hour event he has matched Rufus Jones, rough colored boy from New York and the equally rough Monty LaDue, Canadian woodsman. Both men usually are disqualified for roughness.

In the one hour semi-final Buck Weaver will meet Steve Nenoff. This one should also be a bit on the rough side, Fishbaugh says. At 8:30 p. m. a tag team match between four Marion boys will open the evening.

PEEVED BOB FELLER FACES YANKS TODAY

Doesn't Like Talk About Losing Two Straight.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 30—Rapid Robert Feller, Cleveland Indians' ace who has lost two straight games while regaining his American league strikeout crown, will attempt to snap his losing streak today at the expense of the New York Yankees.

Manager Lou Boudreau has nominated "peeved" Feller to take the hill. It seems Rapid Robert is upset by the inference in some quarters that he is "shipping" because he dropped two of his first three starts.

Feller, who has demonstrated that he didn't lose his speed on the high seas by striking out 28 batters in three contests, expressed no concern over reports of grandstand experts who feared that he was "shipping."

Manager Lou Boudreau scoffed at rumors that Feller was losing his prewar brilliance, and declared, "All I can say to that is just come out and watch him pitch."

"In the three games he's worked," said Boudreau, "we've given him exactly five runs. The only time he won he had to pitch a shutout."

Feller fanned 10 batters and limited the Chicago White Sox to three hits in winning the season opener 1 to 0. In a 10-inning battle with Detroit, the firebailer duplicated his opening-game strikeout feat but was defeated 3 to 2 with an unearned run providing the margin.

An infield miscue and three windblown pop flies which dropped for base hits contributed to his 4 to 2 loss to the White Sox last week as he whipped his strikeout pitch past eight Cnicox.

Floyd Bevens of the Yankees will oppose Feller today.

LEGAL POINT MAY HIT NEW BASEBALL UNION

NLRB Weighs Right to Hear Case Against Nats.

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, April 30—The question of jurisdiction was raised today by the National Labor Relations Board which yesterday received from the American Baseball Guild charges of unfair labor practices against the Washington baseball club.

The Guild action, announced here by Director Robert Murphy, was the first move against any club in the latest attempt to unionize professional ball players.

Earle K. Shaw, a regional NLRB attorney, raised the question of jurisdiction.

"One question," he asserted, "is whether the board has jurisdiction." The board "must determine," he added, "whether the Washington Baseball club is in commerce within the meaning of the (NLRB) act."

The action brought from Clark Griffith, the Washington ball club owner, the assertion that he never had talked "with any baseball players about joining a union. If a player wants to go into that sort of thing that's his business."

He added that his only comments on the Guild were in a news interview and that "they have no claim against me whatsoever."

NEW RECORD IS SET BY DELAWARE HORSE

Neville's Old Grandad Cracks Pacing Mark.

By The Associated Press

ARCADIA, Calif., April 30—A new half-mile record for two-year-old pacers was established yesterday at Santa Anita as Old Grandad, owned by J. A. Neville of Delaware, O., captured the first baby race of the Grand Circuit meeting.

Old Grandad, driven by Curley Smart, stepped the four furlongs in 1 01½. The former mark of 1 05 was held by several juveniles in the east. Anna Chief was second and Cherokee Chief third. Old Grandad paid $8.20 on the front end.

Yesterday's card, witnessed by only 5,957, was devoted to charity, the Los Angeles Community Chest being the beneficiary. Only $280,815 was bet on the eight races but Bernard Kearney, general manager of the Western Harness association, said there would be a profit for the chest.

Schlairet-Cardington Game Here Tonight

CANCER FUND DRIVE NEAR END IN COUNTY

Junior C. of C. To Wind Up Collection Saturday.

The Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce will close its cancer drive today in all but the outlying districts of the county.

Committees will remain in local business and industrial concerns until Saturday, Junior Chamber officials said, but there will be no special drive in the city to secure funds. Committeemen started today calling in funds that have been promised, and Robert Solinger, chairman of the drive, urged all persons not already contacted to make their contributions immediately. Junior Chamber officials plan to close their books Saturday and expect to have their total figures compiled by then.

The drive in the county will continue this week to give out-of-town solicitors an opportunity to complete their campaign.

The Junior Chamber is seeking $25,000 in its April cancer drive. Half the funds collected will be used to expand local cancer treatment facilities. The remainder will go to state and national cancer organizations.

URGES USE OF VETS AGAINST RACKETEERS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30 — Senator Murdock (D-Utah) proposed yesterday that the OPA use veterans in a strong enforcement arm to stamp out black markets as the AFL urged senate rejection of house amendments to price control laws.

Murdock's idea was called "a very good suggestion" by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Murdock added "I believe a lot of veterans could do the job."

Senator Capehart (R-Ind) accused the administration of indulging in "a 100 per cent black market' deal in its corn subsidy arrangement.

When the government sought to get corn for its famine-relief program, it found it had to pay a 70-cents-a-bushel premium, Capehart said.

When business men pay above ceilings to get commodities needed to keep running, Capehart said, they are called black marketeers.

"Now the government is doing the same thing," he said.

Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) objected. "I don't believe you can place profits and human lives on the same level," he said.

Capehart agreed with Taylor that profits and relief of starvation are not on the same level. He stressed his point, however, that the government was doing what it bitterly criticized business men for doing.

Pigeon Problem Is Big Headache for Government Agency

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30—Anyone who mentions pigeons around the War Assets Administration these days gets the bird.

The Army bird that is.

Although the last pigeon has fluttered out of the war assets administration's life, the memory and the correspondence, linger on.

It's a sad story, so grab your hanky.

Last fall, the signal corps decided 20,000 of its little messenger pigeons no longer were needed. So the government began peddling its pigeons.

By the 15th of February, 1,561 pairs had been sold for $6,005. Well done, you say.

But hold on a moment. An average, appetited pigeon will stow away $4.82 worth of grain per year. The 17,000 pigeons the government still had cost $6,970 a month for feed alone.

Trying to save the red ink off their feet, the war assets people decided on drastic action.

We'll give them away, they cried. But not only Pierre Salinger, our press chief, can take it for 20."

And what happened?

"We got more than 14,000 letters," the pigeon publicity girl says with a sigh. "A dear knows how many people they asked for 100,000 pigeons.

"That's the worst of it. We plainly stated that the pigeons were all at army camps. But 300 people dropped old crates direct to us here and asked us to fill them up with pigeons."

The pigeon publicity girl added that the war assets administration has been passing away faithfully, but still has a bushel of letters to answer.

She said she didn't know exactly how many. No, there was no one she could ask.

"You see," she explained, around here, no one mentions pigeons out loud any more."

Company officials said today that pouring of concrete bases has been completed and that construction of one of the buildings has been started. The work will probably take two months, it was believed. The buildings are manufactured by the Great Lakes Steel Co. of Detroit and were purchased through the Dutt Implement Co. of Marion.

NEWARK MAN TALKS BEFORE FOREMEN

Glass Co. Executive Speaks at Marion Meeting.

Clovis Steinmetz, director of training of the Owen-Corning Fiberglas Corp. of Newark, and staff speaker for the National Association of Foreman, spoke to about 100 members of the Marion Foremen's club at a dinner meeting in Eagles Hall Monday night.

Mr. Steinmetz's subject was "The Foreman's Microscope." He stressed that a foreman's success hinged on his ability to analyze the traits and qualities of his employes and to assign them the kind of work they like to do.

Harold Tobin, president of the local club, presided and appointed a nominating committee headed by Ray Lovett. The committee will report at the next meeting May 27 when the club will elect seven members to the executive committee.

President Tobin announced the opening Tuesday exhibit and clinic by the National Association of Foremen in the Coliseum at Dayton and invited any one interested to visit it.

SPECIAL STOCKS GAIN IN TODAY'S TRADING

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 30—Special stocks did fairly well in today's market although many leaders continued to suffer from the lack of sound bids.

Quotations were a shade improved in most departments in the forenoon, but slipping tendencies appeared here and there around midday.

Renewal of negotiations for settlement of the coal strike failed to arouse much enthusiasm among customers because of reported snags in the way of a compromise. Earnings, dividends and splitup talk again aided assorted favorites.

Rubbers, including Goodrich, Goodyear and U. S. Rubber turned upward.

SHOVEL CO.

on Jan. 21 was settled March 14. Effective April 11 selling prices of most machines and repair parts were increased an additional 5 per cent on base prices of Oct. 1941. Effort continues to be made to secure needed selling price relief to help offset increase in labor and material costs. The company has a backlog of orders of approximately $12,000,000.

"We wish to advise the stockholders that the company has arranged a long-term bank loan to provide capital funds for rehabilitating our plant, machinery and equipment to reduce manufacturing costs. The present $1,000,000 loan will be paid off. The loan agreement provides for a loan to the company of $1,000,000 for capital expenditures this year as needed and an additional $1,000,000 during 1947. These loans will be repayable in quarterly installments beginning April 30, 1948, and extending to April 30, 1953. The interest rate will be from 1½ per cent to 2¾ per cent, depending upon maturity. There are no restrictions on the payment of dividends except that the company agrees to maintain net current assets of at least $3,000,000, as compared with $3,600,000 under the loan being paid off.

"The legal and other details of the voluntary exchange offer which is to be made to the preferred stockholders are now being attended to and when they are completed the offer will be made." The plan calls for exchange of preferred shares for the new common stock.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

OLGA'S reply was prompt, but there was anxiety in her eyes as she looked at her husband, and I knew that she was afraid anger at Mary smoldered beneath his apparent calm and elaborately courteous demeanor.

"Yes, my dear Philip," she said. "Everything is in readiness. The moment we sit down at the table, service will begin.

"Then let us go in at once," her husband said, and offered his arm to me with what was rather an obeisance than a simple bow.

Noel immediately crossed to Olga's side, and she put her hand upon his arm, while Mary crossed to her uncle's side.

"I should be taking you in, Olina," my husband said from his wheel chair, "Will you accept my son or nephew in my stead?"

"Your nephew, please," Olga interrupted quickly. "Then my place cards need not be disturbed—"

She caught her lips together, and clamped them tightly upon the word "again" which almost had escaped them. Her eyes came to mine for a frightened instant, and I sent her a glance calculated to assure her that the word had not escaped her, and that therefore no one could possibly know that the place cards already had been changed to permit me to "ride herd" on Noel, and Dicky and Junior to flank Roderick, when the explosive and flaunting display of the heirloom betrothal ring should be made.

All Danger Skirted

All danger had been skirted, now, however, and Mary spoke with airy lightness.

"And if I'm not the fortunate lolly!" she said. "I have two cavaliers, my uncle and my cousin, and, if I do say it as shouldn't, they're the handsomest men in the room, always excepting my darling husband."

She stepped to the side of Dicky's wheel chair as she spoke, and Junior put his hands upon it, as Philip, with his brows slightly furrowed, flung open the double doors to the library and motioned to Junior to wheel his father through ahead of the rest of us.

He repeated the procedure at the doors leading to the dining room, and by the time we were all inside, the rest were exclaiming as I had done over the beauty of the table and the decorations of flame-colored orchids, which made an exquisite setting for Olina in her dark red velvet sheath gown, with a ruby necklace around her throat, and the great pigeon-blood ruby of her heirloom betrothal ring glowing from her finger.

Furrow Disappeared

The furrow between the host's eyebrows disappeared as he listened to the encomiums upon the table, and I was infinitely relieved. I know his inordinate vanity, and guessed that he had been childishly annoyed at Mary's comment upon the good looks of her uncle and her cousin, a comment, which I was sure had been maliciously intentional on Mary's part because she had seen his annoyance at her spoiling of his formal betrothal announcement.

I could have shaken Mary for annoying her father-in-law more than she was compelled to do by the exigencies of the situation confronting her in Olina's heirloom betrothal ring. But Mary is a law unto herself, and I put up an involuntary little prayer that Philip had not been provoked sufficiently to retaliate upon his recalcitrant daughter-in-law in the diabolical humorous fashion of which he is so skilful a master.

Luncheon Proceeds

But, as the luncheon proceeded, with its courses of clams on the half shell, clear consomme, ducks with orange dressing and sauce, asparagus, and a mixed green salad, my fears subsided, for Philip was what the Victorian novelists would have called the "soul of affability" all through the meal.

Then, when the dessert—specially molded ices in creamy hearts with flame-colored arrows piercing them—were brought on, and the saturnine Charles had filled the glasses of the wine drinkers with champagne, and the others with fruit punch, Philip rose to his feet.

I have a toast to propose, and an announcement to make," he said.

County Highway Maintenance Program Mapped for Summer

Commissioners Approve Plans Drafted by Engineer's Office for Repair of 30.94 Miles of Road.

A $58,618.91 road surface and drag treating program for Marion county highways this summer was approved—yesterday by county commissioners.

The program provides for surface treating 31.65 miles of road and drag treating 30.94 miles. The drag treating program will include work on sections of 18 roads at an estimated cost of $53,282.78. Surface treating work will include sections of 22 county roads at an estimated cost of $15,354.13.

The summer project also sets up extra work in Morral, Green Camp, Caledonia and Pleasant township, boosting the total estimated cost of the entire program to $72,712.60.

County commissioners will take bids on the work on May 16 and the program is expected to get under way sometime after that date.

Estimates on Material

The county engineers office estimates 72,346 gallons of asphalt and 3,009 tons of No. 6 stone will be used on the surface treating program, including the extra work. A total of 67,421 gallons of asphalt and 2,804 tons of No. 6 stone will be used on county roads alone.

The drag treating program, including the extra work will take 28,840 gallons of prime tar, 169,372 gallons of mix tar, 60,592 gallons of asphalt seal, 7,258 tons of No. 46 stone and 2,411 tons of No. 6 stone.

Extra work will include surface treating nine village streets in Morral at an estimated cost of $1,122. The Morral project will include 16,418 square yards of streets. Work in Green Camp includes drag treating Pearl, Walnut, Mill and County streets and in Caledonia drag treating South Water street. Two additional roads in Pleasant township, the Marion-Cardington road and the Somerlot-Hoffman road will receive drag treatment. Total estimated cost of the extra drag treating work is $2,973.69.

The drag treating program will include sections of the following county roads: Campbell road, Holland road, Pleasant Hill road, Kenton - Galion road, Meeker-Upper Sandusky road, Joint County road, Agosta-Meeker road, Mt. Olive-Green Camp road, Centerville-Newmans road, Klingle road, Almendinger road, Waldo-Western road, Richland road, Marion-Edison road, Whetstone River road, Brockleaby road, Marion-Williamsport road and the Marseilles-Galion road.

Surface Treating

The county engineer's office has been working on plans and estimates for the road program for several weeks. Roads throughout the county generally are below average in condition and some are badly in need of repair, according to County Engineer Walter W. Johnson. Before setting up the summer work schedule Mr. Johnson and county commissioners inspected all county highways to determine which roads were in most need of repair.

PHONE STRIKE HITS EASTERN OHIO AREA

By The Associated Press

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., April 30 — A strike of telephone operators and repair men started at 8 a. m. today in the New Philadelphia, Dover and adjacent area, affecting some 6,500 phones.

Joe Kres, district vice president of the CIO-United Electrical and Machine Workers said approximately 47 union members left their jobs at exchanges of the Ohio Associated Telephone Co.

In addition to New Philadelphia and Dover, about 12 small towns, including Warsaw, Cooperdale and Stoney Creek, were affected.

Dial service was not bothered so far, but Kres said that as breakdowns occurred this would be halted also.

Kres said the union was seeking a 25-cent hourly increase with a minimum scale of 65 cents an hour and had asked the dispute be arbitrated.

He was arraigned before Mayor Joseph W. Harding and then taken to the Summit county jail to await grand jury action. Acting Detective Captain John Stewart said Bickett last night signed a written statement admitting the killing.

SOLONS SAY VOTERS WAN CURBS ON OPA

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30 — House Republicans insisted today their visit back home convinced them they were right in voting to whittle down OPA.

Not one of the G.O.P. members returning from a hurried pre-campaign trip to the political grass roots reported any widespread dissatisfaction among constituents over the drastic curbs written into the price control extension bill just before the house quit for its 10-day Easter vacation.

Public sentiment over that action was one of the things members wanted to learn about at home. Republicans were particularly concerned because it was under their leadership that the house took the course it did.

Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts told reporters he found that "the people want the OPA structure retained but they want sanity and efficiency in its operation."

That's what Republicans want, too, Martin added.

Rep. Wolcott of Michigan, top Republican on the banking committee and spearhead of the drive against OPA, said he found little dissatisfaction back home.

"The people generally think it's about time that OPA was curbed a little," Wolcott said in an interview. "I found much more praise than condemnation for the action we took."

Another Republican chieftain, Rep. Jensen of Iowa, told reporters the only reaction he observed was a feeling on the part of the voters that the house didn't go far enough when it started working on OPA.

A group of southern Democrats joined with the Republicans in putting through amendments the administration has said would nullify price control.

This much soup pays the freight on a whole can!

YOU'LL find mighty few bargains these days, but here's one that's right in your kitchen cupboard! Next time you open a can of soup, measure a spoonful. One spoonful represents the average cost of shipping the whole can of soup by railroad from the cannery to you.

Freight charges on most other products are equally small. Today, railroads receive an average of less than one cent for moving 2000 pounds of freight one mile.

But, as materials, fuel and wages continue to increase in cost, it is inevitable that freight rates must be adjusted upwards, so the railroads can continue to provide the service all America expects and needs for prosperity.

Era of Low-Price Utility Car Seen by Willys-Overland Head

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

TOLEDO, O., April 30—The bulk of future motor-car demand, [illegible] and abroad, will be for vehicles of the economy-[illegible] type, in the opinion of James D. Mooney, president and [illegible] of Willys-Overland Motors, Inc.

He said in an interview today, is one of the most pos-[illegible] things to come out of World [illegible].

[illegible]y is 61. He looks under [illegible]aps because of his keen [illegible], ruddy complexion and [illegible] through graying hatch of [illegible]. He gave up a lifetime job [illegible]e president of General [illegible] Corp. in charge of its [illegible] operations to take over [illegible]ent post as head of [illegible]Overland.

Willys-Overland he has [illegible] program that at full [illegible]mplates an annual out-[illegible]000,000 vehicles. Included [illegible] the universal jeep, the [illegible]on wagon with an all-[illegible]ody, a sedan delivery [illegible] a one-ton truck in two [illegible] wheel drive and two [illegible]ylinder passenger cars.

Secrets Are Kept

[illegible]ecific details of the new [illegible] vehicles have been [illegible]. It may be said, how-[illegible] they will include some [illegible]ing changes entirely new [illegible]American motoring. Prices [illegible]ave not been disclosed.

[illegible]s beginning in 1908 [illegible]Overland has made about [illegible]and one-quarter million [illegible]. Its peak production [illegible]was 1928 when sales reached [illegible]units. At that time em-[illegible]ment totaled 23,000 workers. [illegible]ar peak output the com-[illegible]y expects to employ up to 25,0000 compared with an immediate pre-war top of 6,747.

Mooney, who has his bachelor of science and mechanical engineering degrees at Case School of Applied Science in Cleveland, believes there has been "a lot of loose talk about an enormous backlog of demand for new cars." (In some sources it has been estimated at upward of 12,000,000 units.)

"There is a good market ahead," he said, "but the number of persons willing to pay 'any price for a new car' is much smaller than many persons realize. The industry probably can satisfy that part of the demand with less than a year's output. Then will come an increasing shift to the truly economical car. That trend already has made itself felt before the war." (Virtually every car manufacturer currently is working on a low-priced, lightweight model for possible 1947 introduction.)

Sees No Big Boom

Mooney is not greatly excited about assertions that the car industry, once all restrictions are removed, can boost its production to previously unattained levels.

"The industry probably can make 6,000,000 units a year under pressure, but it will not be good for the industry or for the nation," he said.

"It would be much better all around if production could be stabilized to insure steady, uninterrupted production and employment."

Willys, he said, will aim at distributing 25 per cent of its output in the overseas market.

Since civilian production was resumed last autumn the company has made 18,881 of the universal jeeps. During the war it turned out $760,000,000 worth of weapons for the armed forces.

Mackenzie Hails Christian Party Victory in Reich

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The smashing victory of Germany's new political party, the Christian Democratic Union, in the municipal elections in the American zone, should be regarded for what it really is—the triumph of Christian principles over the evils of Hitlerism which still lurk at the middle of the Reich.

This is very important for the plague can only be eradicated by moral regeneration. You can keep the manufacturers quiet or armed might and you can achieve the ends of demilitarization of Germany through a four-power 25-year mutual assistance pact such as the United States proposes but you can't reform the Nazis that way. Reform must come through a change of heart.

DewittMackenzie

The political development is supremely important because Germany isn't the only country in Europe which has lost its moral grip as a result of the war. The fighting forces of the Christian Social Union in Germany, which is the center of the plague, gives hope that there may be a resurgence of morality in the affected areas of the distressed continent.

Not Denominational

I encountered this politico-religious movement when I was in Germany two months ago. It was getting well under way then and represented the combination which its name indicates—people who subscribe to the tenets of Christianity. It isn't a question of denomination at all. Catholic and Protestant—and undoubtedly any others who subscribe to this code of right—have joined hands, and the whole emphasis is laid on the Christian principles.

I found the military authorities in both the American and the British zones utilizing fully the efforts of these workers for moral rehabilitation. At that time there had been no real test of strength at the polls, but it certainly is encouraging to see that they have won such an overwhelming battle with the ballot. Hitler deliberately set out to debase his people, and he succeeded with a huge section of them, but obviously there were many staunch citizens whom he didn't corrupt, and they now form the nucleus of the army of moral rehabilitation.

The combination of the religious for the eradication of Hitlerism doesn't mean, of course, that the denominational work has been suspended. We had, for instance, the announcement a couple of weeks ago by the American military government that the famous pastor Martin Niemoeller expected to lead a reform movement throughout German Protestantism to eradicate all vestiges of Nazi control. The Catholic church with its big German membership also is continuing denominational activities. But for the purposes of political work these two great religious bodies are giving the world a fine demonstration of cooperation for the universal welfare.

Pastor Scores Delay

Pastor Niemoeller has declared that he thinks delays by the Allies in determining Germany's future are the greatest obstacle to destroying the last of Nazism. He says some younger Germans "are clinging to national socialism like a man in the open sea clings to a plank, not because it is a very strong plank but because it is all he has. The young people just do not see the other plank. They must be shown something which makes democracy alluring."

Maybe, but that isn't the whole story by a long shot. It's quite as much a matter of moral collapse as it is of political uncertainty, as I see it. And, as already remarked, Germany isn't alone on the continent in this moral sickness.

OPA Orders Boost in Rye Bread Cost

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30—OPA today raised retail prices for most rye bread two cents a one-pound loaf.

And an official of the agency told a reporter privately that housewives soon may pay more for white bread and other kinds.

Bakers, the official said, are seeking an increase of a cent a one-pound loaf on other than rye bread. He added that "some increase looks likely."

The rye bread hike of two cents, effective immediately, pushes retail prices to 11 and 12 cents for most one-pound loaves, OPA said. It will remain in effect at least until June 30 when the agency will re-examine bakers' costs to determine whether the higher ceilings should be continued.

Hudson and Willys Plants Open Again

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, April 30 — Hudson Motor Car company's assembly lines here and Willys-Overland's at Toledo moved back into production today following a shutdown of several weeks due to parts shortages.

Both were forced to close down because of the strike in the plant of the Midland Steel Products Co. at Cleveland, supplier of frames. With the settlement of the Midland strike Hudson recalled 12,000 workers and Willys-Overland 4,600.

Wooster Students To Banquet Chaucer Style — Sans Forks

By The Associated Press

WOOSTER, O., April 30—Table manners of Chaucer's time, Wooster college banqueters will have tonight and would have been a bit on the side dropped quite by Mrs. Post but the rules were simple.

"No quarreling at the table or no making faces, no stuffing the mouth with food like an ape, no eating on both sides of the mouth at once or laughing when the mouth is full, no undue haste in supping the potage, no wiping of fingers on the tablecloth, no spitting across the table."

Those are the general rules given at tonight's 10th annual Chaucer banquet at Wooster college—the first such affair since wars and the banquet was begun by Prof. George W. Bradford to give his students an idea of how Chaucer lived.

Students will banquet in the English style of 500 years ago, featuring a lack of dining implements plus period costumes and entertainment.

Members of the cast dressed in costumes of Chaucer's time will parade around the campus tonight prior to their arrival.

Table service will consist of the ancient trencher plate of bread made before each guest. Entree will consist of meat, vegetables and pastries with beer, lemonade and wine.

All the settings of tonight's affair will be similar to those used by President Bradford and he plans to eat with Chaucer if permitted by custom until Pearl Harbor.

Students and faculty members have been given the task of writing a theme on what is the key of England's literature and what effect Chaucer's tales of Merrie England may have had.

Thirteen jugglers, clowns and the Yale gypsies around the banquet hall.

Purpura

The truly marvelous precision of the body's construction is not often realized until disease intervenes to call attention to its normal and usual perfection.

Take the capillaries, for instance, those smallest of blood vessels which extend in a network through all the tissues of the body. Exceedingly tiny, exceedingly thin-walled, exceedingly fragile, they still have important work to do and it is their very fragility which enables them to do it.

Their task is to bring the blood with all its life-giving elements into closest possible contact with hungry tissues, without at the same time allowing it to escape into them. This control over the over-active blood by the delicate tissuepaper capillary wall is one of the most remarkable of all the body's very remarkable powers.

Yet, once in a while, through some not well-understood weakness, the capillaries fail in their job. The blood seeps through, with the result that there is bleeding into the skin and even into the mucous membranes and inner organs. This disorder is called purpura.

Nevertheless, according to Doctor Sidney C. Dyke of England, changes in the make-up of the blood are not the main factor in this disease. It is essentialy due to capillary weakness. The lack of blood platelets, even though it always occurs in thrombocytopenic purpura, is not the actual cause of the trouble.

The bleeding may be in the form of tiny red spots called petechiae or there may be much larger spots of dark red or purple color.

There are different kinds of purpura. However, in general there are two classes—the purpura known as thrombocytopenic purpura in which there is a reduction of the number of blood platelets and the other type known as non-thrombocytopenic purpura, in which no such reduction occurs. The blood platelets are tiny bits of tissue which have to do with the clotting of the blood.

In the normal blood there are between 200,000 and 300,000 platelets present per cubic centimeter of blood. Bleeding into the skin is likely to occur when the number falls below 60,000 per cubic centimeter of blood.

Thrombocytopenic purpura, or the type in which the platelets are decreased, occurs most often in children and young adults and rarely appears after the age of 40. When the condition first starts it is often found that bruising occurs easily. Sometimes there may be nosebleed. Then a few scattered petechiae will be noted on the skin surface.

In some cases, the disorder starts more suddenly with large hemorrhages into the mucous membrane, as well as into the skin. In girls the condition may first show itself at the beginning of the monthly periods which are prolonged over many days.

Insofar as the treatment of thrombocytopenic purpura is concerned, Dr. Dyke believes that removal of the spleen will put an immediate and dramatic stop to all of the bleding. The spleen is located in the left upper part of the abdomen.

Just what relation it has to this disorder is not known except that its removal is followed by a rise in the number of platelets in the blood over a number of days although the bleeding stops immediately with removal of the spleen.

When purpura has been present long enough to produce anemia or lessening of the coloring in the blood, it may be advisable to have injections of blood into a vein before the operation for removal of the spleen is carried out. It is not difficult to diagnose thrombocytopenic purpura if the number of platelets in the blood is determined.

Hints on How To Save Food for Starving

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30—Set an extra place at the dinner table. Imagine a starving man is your guest.

Will you feed him? He is waiting today in the famine countries of the world for your answer.

There are ways to help him, as simple as setting a table, as direct as if you served his plate yourself.

He needs bread and wheat products, food fats and oils. These are the mainstays in food supplies being shipped overseas.

Here are ways you can save them, suggested by the bureau of home economics of the agriculture department:

Serve only one slice of bread to each person at dinner. Let the family ask for "seconds." Make the crusty heel a prized piece.

Watch that toaster. Burned bread feeds nobody

Use dry bread in bread puddings. Or in baked fruit scallops, made of bread and canned or fresh fruit, a little sweetening and fat.

Dry bread makes good toast, not only plain but French, cinnamon, hot-milk, cheese, jelly and Melba.

Keep bread, wrapped in moisture-proof paper, in the icebox or bread box. Dry bread can be used but moldy bread is a total waste.

Don't trim off or discard sandwich crusts. Turn odds and ends of bread into dry crumbs for stuffing, frying and topping baked dishes. Try open-faced sandwiches.

To save fats, bake, broil or stew meat, poultry, fish, instead of frying.

Serve fresh fruits for desserts in place of pastry or cake.

Put aside your taste for French fries and other foods fried in deep fat.

Use saved fats for gravy, sauces, flavoring of soups and vegetables, salad dressing, quickbreads, stuffing for poultry or meat. "Butter" bread crumbs in it.

A teaspoon of fat, saved each day by every man, woman and school child, will mean a total saving of a million pounds of fat a day.

Old Hubbies Best, Says 14-Year Old Married to Man 64

By The Associated Press

ATLANTA, April 30—A 14-year-old bride, honeymooning with her 64-year-old bridegroom in a three-room cabin along a country road, said today that one thing she liked about the marriage was her husband's age.

"The old ones will stay in place and won't chase around after other women," she told an Atlanta Journal reporter.

The girl, Emma Lee Moore, said she had never been to school but could cook and that her husband Porter Alexander Banks, a carpenter, liked her chocolate cakes.

The carpenter's application for a marriage license showed he was divorced in February from his first wife.

Emma Lee's mother, Mrs. Rosie L. Moore, who has eight other children, signed a waiver to the marriage. Emma Lee's father died three years ago.

Milo Can Have Honors, School Boy Decides

By The Associated Press

SOMERVILLE, N. J., April 30—Allan La Fever has decided to end his calf-lifting marathon, now that Phoebe weighs 365 pounds and he tips the beam at a mere 149.

For more than six and a half months, the 17-year-old high school senior has been lifting Phoebe every day in an effort to duplicate the feat of Milo, the Greek strong man of 2,000 or more years ago, in lifting a calf daily until it becomes a cow.

Phoebe, who weighed 72 pounds when it all started Oct. 9, has become a prize-winning heifer and is now being groomed for the national dairy show in Columbus in October.

"Milo was a full-grown man," said Allen last night, "and I'm not. Besides, we decided I'd better not ruin my health by continuing."

Shutting the Mouth

WE HOLD no special brief for the National Association of Manufacturers in its wide-open campaign to discontinue OPA when the Price Control Act expires June 30.

But this business organization, together with other business organizations, such as United States Chamber of Commerce and National Small Business Men's Association, which also are opposed to continuation of price control on existing terms and in fact on any terms at all, have a right to their opinion. We hold a brief for their right to be heard in a public debate without interruption by bureaucrats.

Their spokesmen have been invited to Washington to give expert testimony before congressional committees. In addition to their direct testimony, those and other organizations and individuals have given a great deal of indirect and uninvited testimony, which is their privilege in a free country. They are talking in defense of their own livelihood. Yet, they are being accused at every turn of falsehood, avarice, reaction, even corruption.

In all their activities they have put their cards on the table. They know what the stake is. They know, or think they know, what the opposition's stake is. After a decade of experience with the principal elements of the opposition, they have a healthy respect for its fighting ability. They expect name-calling. They are not above calling names themselves. The struggle to keep private enterprise from being plowed under in the United States is no pillow fight.

Every conscientious citizen must object, has a duty to object, to the presence in this fight of the people's paid public servants. The Chester Bowleses and the Paul Porters of the new New Deal burgeoning in Washington under the Hannegans trying to build Harry Truman into a man on horseback have no right to impugn the motives of any taxpayer while they are on the public payroll. They are drawing their salaries as administrators, not advocates. If Mr. Truman can order the Navy's admirals to shut their mouths in a dispute which can be settled only by congress, he is six weeks late in ordering bureaucrats abusing taxpayers in the fight over OPA to shut theirs.

365 Days Since Hitler

A FEW days ago morbid vandals dug up the corpse of Benito Mussolini from a grave in Milan and excited a spasm of political nerves in the wreckage of the dictatorship he established.

No one has dug up the corpse of Adolf Hitler, nor seems likely to find out where to start digging. In Germany, in Europe, in the world, only 365 days after his death, Adolf Hitler is unimportant, no longer even a stirring symbol, but only a memory of a wretched interval when millions of men killed one another in his name and against it.

During the war, it was customary to speak of Hitler doing this, Hitler doing that, as if the maniacal Austrian had the ability to be everywhere at once and make all major decisions in his own mind. There was a crusade, men told each other—a crusade to overthrow Adolf Hitler. Germans told each other it was glorious to die to keep Adolf Hitler from being overthrown.

Some of this represented carelessness in substituting the name of a man for the name of a nation. The war was not fought against Hitler, but against Germany. Hitler did not make all the decisions; he made only a few of them, some disastrously bad. Most of the decisions were made by lesser lights in a conspiracy that is now seen to have used Hitler more than Hitler used it. But some of it represented a tragic misconception of the war itself.

Victory was not to be won by getting rid of a Mussolini, a Hitler, or a Japanese figurehead. It was a thing to be won by getting rid of the kind of warped and bloodthirsty reasoning that made the Mussolinis, Hitlers and the other figureheads possible. Nothing was settled when Hitler's death was reported by his underlings a year ago. Nothing had been settled by Mussolini's death previously, and nothing is being settled by Hirohito posing for photographers in his ridiculous pose of the friend of the people.

The despots were disposed of, but not despotism.

Union Political Liberty

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Individual Freedom Lost To Strengthen Group.

IT MIGHT be well for us to spend less time worrying about the lack of political liberty in Russia and consider the loss of political liberty by members of American labor unions. Great as the economic gains have been through organization, there have been serious losses in personal liberty.

Last winter, the Ohio courts upheld the right of the president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to oust a member of his union because said member actively supported Wendell Willkie in 1940. The union member had been an employe of the B. & O. Railroad for 34 years and a member of the B.R.T. for 27 years. The man did not lose his job, because the union had no closed shop contract with the railroad. But it is worth speculating about a similar case in which loss of union membership means loss of a job. To vest such power in a union president is literally to deny to members freedom to exercise their political rights.

Penalty for Members

In many cases, union members have been penalized for taking the wrong side in arguments within unions. The Wagner act, created to protect the right of employes to organize, provides no recourse for men thus penalized.

This situation will grow more and more acute, as unions get deeper into political action. Under the brave new era, labor unions have an actual, if not nominal relationship to the political party. The member of the union gets enrolled in the party supported by the leaders of the union. He is compelled to take sides in union politics. When large values are at stake, say in union-sponsored legislation, the pressure on union members to support favorable candidates is overpowering. Union heads endorse political policies or candidates and so give the appearance, at least, of delivering over the whole membership.

Union members are thus used as pawns in the high politics of their leaders. If they complain, they are told that the candidates or measures in question will be good for the workers. In short, members are asked to delegate their political rights to their officers, in return for material benefits.

Interesting Developments

Some interesting developments along this line are sure to come from the alliance between the Democratic National Committee and the PAC. Suppose, for example, a group in the CIO should decide to start a Republican PAC. What action would the union take with respect to the union rights of the members of the Republican group? I suppose that Mr. Hillman would reply to this column by saying that his PAC is free to support any candidate it chooses, regardless of party.

A great deal has been properly said about the principle involved in political contributions authorized by union leaders. Such practices involve involuntary contributions by members. This is a situation which Congress will ultimately control. But much more needs to be done in providing protection of workers' rights to express their views and openly to support policies and candidates of their individual choice. Under present conditions, about all the freedom that members of some unions have remaining is to vote a secret ballot on election day. And that is not full measure of political liberty.

Illness prevented Paul Mallon from writing his usual column for today.

Barred from Escape But Not from Office

An Indiana court has ruled a public official may not be removed from office merely because he is legally adjudged insane. Needless to say, a lot of the boys are breathing easier.

This lets the bars down completely. Insanity is now no handicap. And incompetency has never been.

Under this new ruling, you can serve out your term in a padded cell.

It wouldn't surprise me, now the courts have indorsed it, to see candidates offered for office whose only platform is a lunacy writ.

Traditional political habiliments may give way to a new style—the congressional strait-jacket.

More than ever, one supposes, our government will resemble the proverbial booby-hatch where the inmates have taken over.

Now that imbeciles can run for office. What this nation needs is a mental examination for voters.

WASHINGTON — Your Capital in Peacetime:

The Society for the Prevention of World War III has asked U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark to see to the deportation of more than 600 members of the Nazi party in this country.

The Nazi party membership list came out of captured official German records.

Author Rex Stout, president of the society, said in part in a telegram to Clark: "The members of this fifth column created domestic disunity by promoting race hatred and other social and economic cleavages and corrosions to obscure Germany's real aim of world conquest. These people had only one loyalty—to pan-Germanism—of which Hitler was the last notorious exponent. These people should be deported as undesirables."

JOHN H. LLOYD, who was in charge of public relations for the Office of Education before he became a lieutenant commander in the Navy, has written a song which already is climbing into the best-seller lists.

It's called simply "I Pledge Allegiance to The Flag." Right, it's a sing-song version of the old "pledge to the flag" which became a school room chant a good many years ago—I think I was in the fourth grade. That's a good many years ago.

John Lloyd's story about the writing of the music of the "pledge" is one for the record:

"I wrote the first notes on 3-by-5 scratch pad sheets. Never having written any music before, I didn't even know if the notes should go up or down."

That was five years ago. But it wasn't until 1944 that Lloyd put his composition on paper and ready for circulation. The verse is his own composition, the chorus the traditional "pledge."

Tin Pan Alley, where John first tried to peddle his opus, gave him no encouragement at all. He finally published it privately. Few songs these days ever get any circulation that way. But in 1944, an educational journal with national circulation picked it up and printed the chorus and music.

Since then it has become a school room classic in a score of states from Texas to Maine, Iowa, Florida, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Indiana teachers, among others, have swamped Lloyd with letters about how the song is better than the old chant.

YOU can't verify it officially, but some insiders here are predicting that there will be another Federal tax cut this year. Both Sen. George (D.-Ga.) and Rep. Doughton (D.-N.C.), the tax watch-dogs in congress, are on the record against any further reductions, but the argument is that the report from income tax and other revenue returns may change their minds.

First objective of the tax-reducers will be the excise taxes—those on entertainment tickets, cosmetics, railroad fares, utility bills, luggage, etc.

These were supposed to be removed six months after the end of the war. Legally, the state of war hasn't even ended yet. But tax reduction advocates may not wait for that hypothetical day. None thinks that there will be any further reduction on 1946 income taxes, but there may be on 1947 rates—particularly in the middle and upper brackets.

Tree Disease Remedy Seen

New hope is held for defeating the virus disease which is reported to be attacking elm trees on an epidemic scale in the Missouri, Mississippi and Ohio valleys, Forester Elbert R. Olmsted and August P. Bellman, manager of the Missouri Botanical Arboretum at Gray Summit, Mo., report.

The United States Department of Agriculture and a number of state agencies are doing intensive research to develop a strain of elm trees that are immune to the disease, Olmsted reported. The virus is an unknown type which attacks elms at the roots; first symptoms of trees having been struck occurs when branches wilt and drop their leaves.

Danbury, Conn., taking steps to push its soil conservation program, meanwhile announced the appointment of a five-man board to supervise the county soil project, according to State Agriculture Commissioner Frank H. Peet. The board will also apply to Washington requesting a soil conservation expert be assigned to the county to advise the community.

Fire-Fighting Jeep

CARSON, Nev.—A fog-dispensing jeep is the latest addition to fire fighting tactics to be employed in forest protection in this area, according to recent announcements.

The vehicle, produced by Willys, is equipped with a high pressure fog pump which is effective against forest fires, reports said. Operated by one man, the pump produces a "fog" spray lasting about 45 minutes and termed particularly effective in controlling big fires.

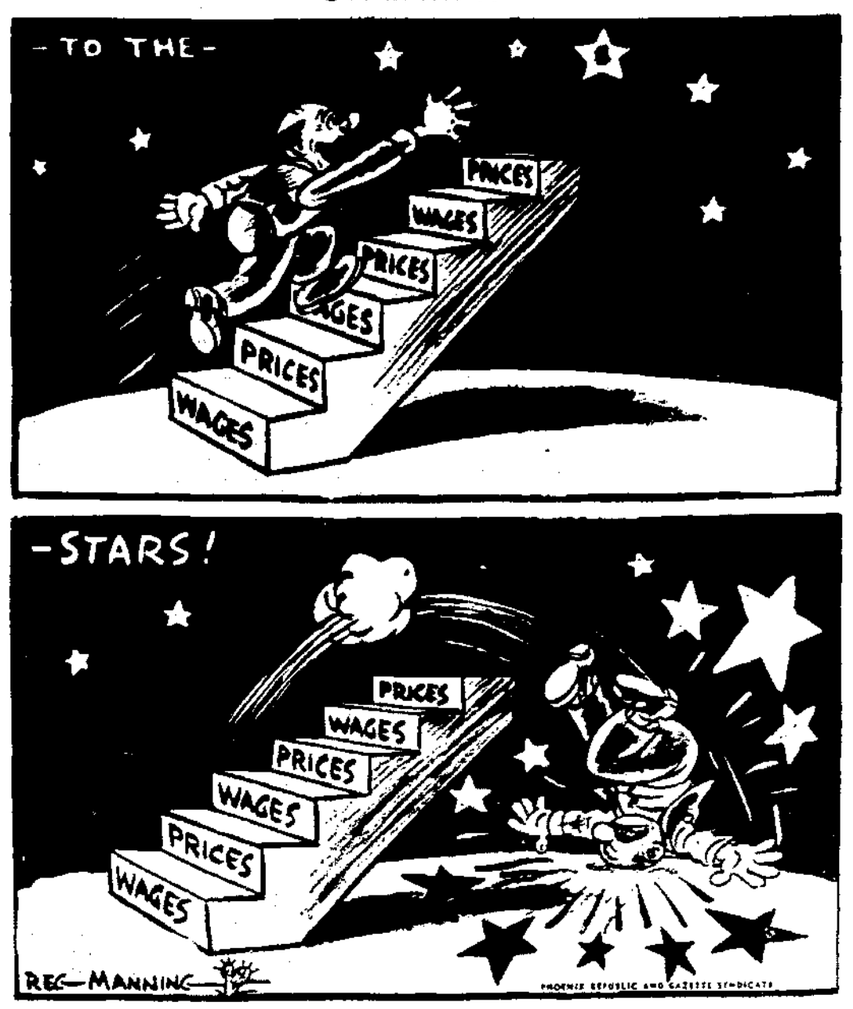
STAIRWAY



From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, April 30, 1936.

A record peacetime naval appropriations bill providing $531,088,707 for adding more ships, air fighters and men to the nation's sea defenses was approved by the house appropriations committee.

Approximately 200 women, representing American Legion auxiliaries of the Sixth Ohio district, attended the annual spring conference held in the Eagles' hall. Mrs. Edith Bass of Columbus, district president, presided, and Mrs. May DeWeese of Troy, state president, was a guest.

Funeral services were conducted for Joseph T. Matthews, 72, secretary of the Marion Lumber Co. and member of one of the county's pioneer families, at his home at 1043 East Center street. Mr. Matthews died the previous Tuesday.

Miss Gertrude Jones of Findlay, a member of the state central committee from the Eighth district, was a guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Marion County Republican Women's club.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson of 400 South Vine street.

Joshua Daniel Finch, 81, lifelong resident of Marion, died at his home at 550 Oak street.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Friday, April 30, 1926.

The city of Baltimore, Md. for the first time in four years invoked an old law which authorized use of the public whipping post for men convicted of wife beating. James H. Kingsmore paid the penalty when he received five lashes across his bare back in the Baltimore prison yard.

Warned by numerous complaints filed with city officials by parents of Marion boys who had been playing slot machines throughout the city, the operator of a business place opposite Central Junior High school voluntarily removed a machine which he was operating. City officials were continuing their inquiry preparatory to launching a campaign against the machines, especially those known as vending devices.

Reports on activities of the year were given by chairmen at the final meeting of the club year held by executive boards of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Emil Sweney was elected an alternate to the state convention of the federation May 11-14 at Springfield.

Mrs. A. B. Wilhelm was hostess to the Qui Vieve club at her home on Irey avenue.

The Art club met with Mrs. James R. Smith at her home on Franklin street. Mrs. Glenna Clevenger and Mrs. E. H. Morgan were elected delegates to the Federation of American Arts convention in Washington the week of May 9.

Mrs. Charles Aiken was elected president of the Forest Lawn Community club in a meeting held at the Forest Lawn school.

A. W. Baker, Erie yardmaster, was elected president of the Erie railroad employes' emergency association.

Town Honors Quints

Fairbury, Neb., turned out almost 100 per cent recently to celebrate the first public appearance of its quintuplets, now four and a half months old. With a brass band playing the quints paraded down Main street.

The Fairbury quints are calves, and their names are United States, Russia, England, China and France. Each wore a white blanket with his name on it. France is the only heifer in the group.

The quints are the offspring of a shorthorn cow and a Hereford bull. When born, they weighed less than 200 pounds in all, and they were weaned on a diet of oatmeal and mixed feed.

Supreme Court Awaits New Chief Justice

THE Supreme Court, already crippled by the prolonged absence of Associate Justice Jackson in the war guilt trials at Nuremberg, is further handicapped by the death of its chief justice, Harlan Fiske Stone.

The court now has only seven active members. Its work always lags in the absence of its administrative head, the chief justice. It is believed President Truman will waste no time appointing a new chief justice, 13th in the court's succession.

Of the previous 12 chief justices, only two were promoted directly from an associate justiceship—Edward D. White appointed by President Taft in 1910, and the late Chief Justice Stone, appointed by President Coolidge. Chief Justice John Rutledge, appointed in 1795, had been an associate justice but had resigned four years before his appointment to become chief justice of South Carolina. Furthermore, his was a recess appointment and, though he had actually presided over the court for a term, he was rejected by the Senate when his name came before it for confirmation.

Charles Evans Hughes, appointed chief justice by President Harding in 1930, also had been an associate justice, but had resigned 14 years before to run for president of the United States. He was in private life when named chief justice.

Some circumstances concerning earlier chief justices seem strange today. The first, John Jay, ran unsuccessfully for governor of New York while chief justice. He was elected governor while in England negotiating a treaty, and thereupon left the chief justiceship. Jay was offered the chief justiceship again in 1801 by President John Adams—in fact, his name was sent to the Senate, but he declined, thus paving the way for the appointment of John Marshall. As for Marshall, he was active in politics while chief justice, and in 1831 accepted the invitation of the Anti-Masonic party to attend its national convention.

Roger B. Taney, who handed down the Dred Scott decision, had been rejected by the Senate as associate justice a year before being confirmed as chief justice in March, 1836. He had incurred hostility as Andrew Jackson's secretary of the treasury by withdrawing federal funds on deposit with the Bank of the United States. New elections changed the composition of the Senate, however.

Salmon P. Chase, named chief justice by Lincoln in 1864, had served in Lincoln's cabinet as secretary of the treasury. He had tried to get the Republican presidential nomination of 1864 away from Lincoln, and the President had accepted his resignation from the cabinet several months before appointing him chief justice.

Chase's successor, Morrison R. Waite, had only a local reputation as a lawyer and had never practiced before the Supreme Court. His successor, Melville W. Fuller, also had little reputation; he had tried only one case before the Supreme Court.

William H. Taft, 1921-30, was the only former president to go to the Supreme Court; he had always esteemed the chief justiceship above the presidency.

So They Say—

Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States—"Despite organized efforts to supplement the food for children, there are still some millions of undernourished, subnormal children who have not yet recovered from the German occupation."

Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary of England—"I am anxious to get British troops out of Greece and they will be withdrawn as soon as conditions allow."

Pearl S. Buck, chairman of the India Famine Emergency committee—"The tragic famine in India may take 10 to 20 million lives in the next few months if sufficient supplies do not reach there in time."

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz—"The State and nation can make no greater contribution than to provide education to the full capacity of the individual."

We Still Have 'Em

The word "Eavesdropper" is derived from "eavesdrop," meaning the width of ground around a house or building which receives the rain water dropping from the eaves, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. A person who stood within the "eavesdrop" of a house—close enough to pry into others' business or listen to secrets—was called an "eavesdropper." Eavesdropping is still a common law offense.

United Nations Opens Probe of Franco Spain

Major Powers Condemn Regime in Ordering Check on Threat to Peace.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 30 — The first investigating subcommittee of the United Nations security council began compiling evidence in secrecy today to determine whether Franco Spain menaces the peace as charged by Poland.

In the first phase of an inquiry authorized yesterday by a resolution stamping the council's "unanimous moral condemnation" of the Franco regime, the subcommittee disclosed it was committed to keep certain submitted documents confidential.

The subcommittee called first for data on Spain now in the hands over the various United Nations. This will be supplemented by other evidence, including that of Spanish Republican leaders exiled in Paris.

Sources Not Revealed

The investigators did not disclose the sources of documents on Spain which are classed as too confidential to be aired in public now, and there was no indication that Spain herself would offer any information.

As it began its inquiries the subcommittee was confronted with the probability that new evidence would be fed to it from both Russia and the Spanish republicans.

Shortly after the subcommittee was named by the council on a ballot of ten affirmative votes, with Russia abstaining, the Moscow radio last night said a signed draft of a secret 1943 Spanish-German military protocol had been captured in the German foreign ministry during the battle of Berlin more than a year ago.

The exiled Spanish republicans indicated Prime Minister Jose Giral of the exiled regime was expected to arrive here from Paris at any moment with new information.

Although the Spanish republican observers regarded the council's appointment of a subcommittee as "a necessary minimum" measure of action and accepted it "with reservations," they said their views on Franco certainly would be laid before the inquiry.

Reds Print Pact of Hitler, Franco

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, April 30—The Soviet press published today photostatic copies of documents which it said confirmed the signing of a secret military alliance between Hitler Germany and Franco Spain in Madrid on Feb. 12, 1943.

The Russian news agency, Tass, said the documents were discovered by Red army intelligence officers in the archives of the German foreign ministry during the battle for Berlin.

The broadcast said the documents showed that when Generalissimo Francisco Franco formulated the alliance with Hitler he "undertook at the appropriate moment to come out against the Allied Armies."

These documents show, the broadcast said, "that Hitler's accomplice, Franco, not only in fact assisted Hitlerite Germany in the war against the allies, but on Feb. 12, 1943, formulated de jure his military alliance with Hitler and undertook at the appropriate moment to come out against the Allied armies."

"It is clearly evident from these documents that in fact a military alliance between Hitlerite Germany and Franco Spain existed long before the signature of a secret military protocol, which only juridically formulated this alliance," the radio continued.

SCHACHT RAPS VIEWS OF TWO U. S. DIPLOMATS

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, Germany, April 30 — Hjalmar Schacht, on trial with 22 other Germans as a war criminal, vigorously assailed today the statements of two American diplomats against him.

"If diplomatic reporting is so unreliable everywhere, it is small wonder that nations have so much trouble getting along together," the former reichsbank president and minister of economics told the international military tribunal.

Schacht angrily attacked an affidavit by George Messersmith, former U. S. ambassador to Argentina, which said the defendant repeatedly told him of Germany's plans for aggression. He also challenged the credibility of the published diary of the late William E. Dodd, former U. S. ambassador to Germany.

LIMA RADIO ANNOUNCER BOUND TO GRAND JURY

Former Clergyman Pleads Guilty To Morals Charge.

By The Associated Press

LIMA, O., April 30—This community, shocked by a morals scandal involving a popular radio announcer, waited in silence today while the Allen county grand jury took up the case.

Organizations which had booked John Hose, 31-year-old former clergyman, as master of ceremonies canceled the engagements after he pleaded guilty when arraigned on a charge of illicit relationships with boys.

None of the club leaders cared to comment.

Richard Henderson, a 19-year-old unemployed youth, pleaded guilty to a similar charge. Hose was released on $2,000 bond, but Henderson remained in jail, unable to provide bail.

Clarence C. Fischer, assistant county prosecutor, said the investigation indicated that perhaps 100 boys, the majority of them under 18, were approached by Hose and Henderson.

Municipal Judge James B. Steiner, before whom the pair was arraigned, said he was told the alleged acts of perversion had been going on for six months.

The judge said the county prosecutor's office began investigating the case about two weeks ago when a Lima family became suspicious of a son's remarks.

Hose, a former Zanesville, O., radio announcer, has been prominent in appearances before church and parent teachers groups.

BIG FOUR

forces from the Reich, and provides for four-power supervision of Germany for at least 25 years after the end of the present occupation.

Far-Reaching Plan

Byrnes' suggestion would insure that German armed forces are "completely disarmed, demobilized and disbanded;" that such organizations as the storm troopers and the Gestapo are wiped out, and that no military equipment or explosives are manufactured.

Atomic energy research would be outlawed through a prohibition of the production of "all fissionable materials for any purpose."

The four signatories would adopt a "system of quadripartite inspection" to make certain that Germany obeyed the instructions, and armed forces of the four powers would stand ready to move promptly against the Reich in the event of rearmament or other infractions.

The "number and types of (armed) forces" which the four countries would make available to insure carrying out of the surrender terms would be determined by a commission of control.

Byrnes emphasized that the proposed mutual assistance treaties concerning Germany and Japan would be entirely separate from the peace treaties with the two former enemy countries.

Proposed Months Ago

He said that a draft of the mutual assistance pact dealing with Germany was contained in secret documents sent to Moscow, Paris and London several months ago.

The only decision reached by the ministers yesterday was to place at the tail-end of the agenda the "preliminary" discussion of the "whole German problem."

This generally was interpreted as a victory for Britain over French requests for definite talks on the Ruhr and Rhineland.

Most of the session was devoted to discussion of the future of Italian colonies, with Russia expressing willingness to compromise on her earlier demands for exclusive trusteeship over Tripolitania.

Vandenberg Pledges Fight for Treaty

By The Associated Press

PARIS, April 30—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich) said today that if Britain, Russia and France accepted Secretary of State James F. Byrnes' proposal on the German disarmament treaty he would "fight vigorously to put it through the senate."

Vandenberg is a member of the delegation which accompanied Secretary Byrnes to Paris for the current foreign ministers' conference.

"This is clearly the effective formula for dependable security against resurgent Axis military aggression," he said in a formal statement. "Equally, it is the formula to clear the air of false issues in mapping the post-war world.

"I completely support Secretary Byrnes' able and courageous presentation of the matter."

New Chiang Tactics Due To Delay Truce

By The Associated Press

CHUNGKING, April 30—Further negotiations for a truce in embattled Manchuria faced considerable delay today as Chinese Communists awaited new attacks predicted by pro-government sources here.

These sources said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek rejected the latest truce plan because it would have left Communists in possession of nearly nine-tenths of Manchuria. They indicated he would hold off until his First army had pushed farther north—toward the Manchurian capital of Changchun.

Trinity Church Filled for Rally

Bible Translator Talks on New Volume; Educational Clinic Held.

A capacity audience filled Trinity Baptist church Sunday afternoon for a countywide Sunday school rally sponsored by the Marion County Council of Churches of which Rev. Eldred Johnston is president. Rev. J. B. Holloway was host pastor.

Divided into three parts, the rally was opened with a program of music presented by the Harding High school a capella choir under the direction of L. C. Jones. Dr. Clarence T. Craig of Oberlin college spoke on "Translating the Bible for Our Day," and the final session of the meeting was a visual education clinic conducted by Miss Lydia Ebel, supervising teacher of weekday religious education in the Marion public schools, with Rev. R. L. Krepps of Millersburg, O., a specialist in visual education, as speaker.

Dr. Craig, one of a group of more than 20 scholars chosen by the International Council of Religious Education a few years ago to work on a modern translation of the Bible, gave an account of how the translation of the New Testament, completed early this year, was made.

He emphasized that the new translation is not a revision of the Bible, but, rather, an attempt to make the English translation more authentic than ever by going back to the original sources of the first Greek manuscripts. His talk included several human interest stories about the men working on the translating committee with him. The work took seven years, and the new version of the New Testament is the first new translation put out since 1901. Dr. Craig recommended this version for its large, readable type, and for its form which is like that of other books, in paragraph and chapter.

At the visual education clinic, Rev. Krepps explained the many opportunities which he said exist for use of visual education in churches today. Even churches without expensive equipment can do much along this line, he stated, and recommended for the church with no projecting equipment to start with securing of a projector for 2x2 inch slides as the first step in a visual education program. After his talk, he demonstrated equipment in the basement of the church where he had set up projectors of various types which he explained. He recommended highly a company in Hollywood which makes religious motion pictures exclusively.

A question period closed the session.

Assassination Plot Shocks Japanese

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 30—News of a frustrated assassination plot against General MacArthur tonight shocked the Japanese.

Their first reaction was twofold: A feeling that their country had lost face; fears that repercussions might be felt in every household.

The government officially apologized. Katsuo Okazaki, representing Foreign Minister Shigeru Yoshida, visited MacArthur's office two hours after Allied headquarters announced discovery of the plot. He did not see the general personally, but delivered a verbal message to aides.

Many Japanese immediately asked "Will this create more anti-Japanese feeling in America?" They linked this with fear that adverse American reaction might complicate efforts to obtain food and might mean a longer, harsher occupation.

They also expressed regret that the incident might mar the occupation and change the attitude of MacArthur, whom the Japanese generally respect.

Some expressed suspicion over the obvious link with May Day and opined that the plotters might be ardent rightists who were seeking to discredit the Communists or to place the blame on them.

OHIO FARM GROUP THREATENS STRIKE

By The Associated Press

SHELBY, O., April 30—Officials of the Ohio Marketing Quota Protest association today held the authority of 29 group chairmen to call a marketing strike on 24-hour notice.

H. H. Fackler, state association chairman, who said at today's meeting that Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson was dealing in a black market, said congress would be given time to eliminate the Office of Price Administration and to meet other unannounced association demands.

Fackler charged the 30-cent-a-bushel bonus offered for corn and wheat to send to foreign lands is unfair to farmers who sold grain to livestock and poultry raisers in the belief grain prices were stabilized.

"The 30-cent bonus is the only method to get around OPA and we want to know why Anderson has any more right than anyone else to deal in the black market," Fackler said.

Chamber directors voted last night to bring to the convention floor a resolution urging that the "date for the elimination of all such controls be Oct. 31, 1946."

They must be educated to hold prices in line. The worst thing that could happen to us would be for prices to spiral and for us to have a period of boom and bust."

He said he felt a definite date should be set for the abolition of OPA and added he thought that date should be sometime next year.

Says Farmers May Have To Cut Output

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 30—Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson said today unless there is "nationwide high productivity and full employment" the time will come when farmers must resort to restricted output to protect their prices.

"Unless people are able to buy at fair prices all the balanced production that agriculture can turn out, farmers soon will be going broke and consumers going hungry," Anderson said in an address prepared for the United States Chamber of Commerce.

An attempt should be made, he said, to shape farm production to the demands of domestic and import markets. "On many farms, it would be a major undertaking to change over, from products the people are used to raising, to unfamiliar ones that are needed more," Anderson conceded. Special credit facilities, technical aid and training programs probably would be needed, he said.

"To be realistic," Anderson continued, "we have to face the possibility that we may fall far short of achieving national full employment.

"For a time, in that event, expanded progress for subsidizing use of farm products by low-income families probably would be best for agriculture, as well as for the nation as a whole.

"But eventually farmers in self-defense would have to fall back on restriction to protect prices. x x x

"We do not have to go that way, and agriculture can handle its big part in building a solid prosperity—it can, that is, if the rest of the economy does its share."

OPA DUE TO RAISE MEN'S SUIT PRICES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30—OPA, seeking to prevent any interruption in deliveries of men's suits, expects to announce shortly a liberalized price regulation on these garments.

Officials who asked to remain anonymous said today the agency will ease its criticized maximum average price order as it applies to suits.

A clothing industry official warned recently that unless this was done, manufacturers would be forced to halt suit shipments beginning tomorrow.

The New order will take into account price ceiling adjustments authorized by OPA last March. The effect of this will be to give manufacturers a higher maximum average price.

This means that producers will be permitted to deliver more high-price line merchandise, but it will not change existing price ceilings on individual garments.

Under the average price regulation as it stands, manufacturers are forbidden to exceed their average prices of a base period, usually 1943. The purpose of this is to maintain production of low-cost suits.

Manufacturers who do not comply with the regulation during a quarterly period, nor come into compliance within 30 days thereafter—May 1 in this case—are not permitted to continue shipments, except under certain circumstances.

Suit producers have contended that price adjustments authorized in March have made it impossible for them to comply with the average price order.

METHODISTS TOLD OF CHURCH COOPERATION

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 30—Interdenominational cooperation is becoming increasingly effective in foreign missionary work, Dr. Wynn Fairfield of New York told the National Assembly of Methodist women today.

"The easiest and simplest form of cooperation overseas is comity," said the chairman of the secretarial council and secretary for general administration of the foreign missions conference of North America.

"Comity consists of arrangements by which different churches or missions agree to geographical divisions of certain cities or fields of work, each one taking responsibility for some part and agreeing to stay out of the places where others are responsible."

Christian women were challenged to recognize the "vital part" they must play in the changing world last night by Mrs. J. D. Bragg of St. Louis, Mo., president of the Methodist Woman's division of Christian Service.

"Christian leaders are realizing that they are given another chance to help create clean hearts and to renew right spirits within," she declared.

"People must learn to live together. The principles of the Prince of Peace must be put into practice and we recognize that Christian women have a vital part to play...."

Approximately 1,500 persons from every state in the nation are attending the four-day assembly.

around. The vibration broke windows in houses and stores in the Monmouth county area.

Coast Guard craft were dispatched to the scene. All doctors and ambulances in the area were mobilized.

The Navy said the ship was tied up at the pier this morning.

The pier is located on the Leonardo end of the huge Earle reservation and fronts on Raritan bay.

Negroes are employed on the unloading platforms.

The depot, built by the Navy in 1943 at a cost of $60,000,000, is the largest in the east and has been continuing since the end of the war as a permanent naval installation.

The pier for loading and unloading is 2½ miles long and is the longest of its kind in the world.

The depot had a storage capacity for 250,000 tons of ammunition.

CONFUSES 'EM—A secretary in the office of Senator W. A. Stanfill (R-Ky.), Mary Gene Miller is becoming quite used to requests for autographs from Capital sightseers. Weather Holds Key to A-Test

Atom Bomb Trials in July Rated as Multi-Million Dollar Gamble.

By The Associated Press

KWAJALEIN, MARSHALL ISLANDS, April 30—July's capricious weather makes the forthcoming atomic bomb tests a multi-million dollar gamble. It could even cancel out all the months of preparation by the joint Army-Navy task force, officers acknowledge.

For weather observers are gambling on finding "one perfect day" in the first 30 days of the month, when all conditions would be favorable for observation, photography and scientific study of the explosion.

Postponement of the tests from May to July means they will be held during the first of the central Pacific's summer storms and the meteorological experts are worried.

On the basis of past meteorological records, they figure these aids against good weather for the tests:

"There is only one chance in 20 that ideal weather will prevail for 24 hours during the first 30 days of July.

There are only three chances in 20 that the weather, while not perfect, will meet test requirements.

There promise to be only seven days of this period during which the weather can be regarded as operational for aircraft.

Two conditions must prevail to obtain the "perfect day" for dropping the bomb and securing satisfactory results in scientific observation.

First, winds up to 60,000 feet must be blowing in an easterly direction, and, second, there must be good visibility, with only one thin layer of cumulus clouds.

WHY NOT ASK GI's?

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 30 — The Army got a bad report card today for a lot of its KP departments after a special survey by civilian experts. Secretary of War Patterson was told the Army has overstocked food, wasted it and cooked and served it in a manner "definitely below the accepted practices of commercial hotels and restaurants."
